

NNHF Community Award - Guidelines

NNHF offers an annual award to the value of Swiss Francs 5,000 for an outstanding voluntary engagement of a person benefitting the haemophilia and allied bleeding disorders community in the developing world.

Purpose

NNHF wants to recognise persons who have shown outstanding voluntary engagement benefitting people with haemophilia and allied bleeding disorders in the developing world.

The results of their engagement should have a long-term impact on the haemophilia and allied bleeding disorders community.

This NNHF Community Award of CHF 5,000 is expected to be used for continued activities aiming at providing better access to care for people with haemophilia and allied bleeding disorders.

Eligibility

The award candidate must be nominated to NNHF by a third party and cannot apply him/herself.

Any private or professional person or community care team can be nominated.

The nomination should be completed with a description proving the personal and voluntary engagement as well as its results and long-term impact.

Submission

Please contact us at info@nnhf.org for further details. The nomination form can be downloaded from our website www.nnhf.org

The complete nomination form should be sent via e-mail to info@nnhf.org.

The nomination deadline for the NNHF Community Award 2018 is 2 October 2017

Deciding body

NNHF Council

Recognition

- The winner will be announced on World Haemophilia Day 2018.
- The announcement will be published in the Haemophilia Journal issue following World Haemophilia Day
- An article about the winner will be published on NNHF Better Practice Sharing platforms, such as the NNHF website, NNHF Facebook page, NNHF Activity Report and NNHF Activity Update (newsletter).

A ceremony will take place at the WFH Congress in Glasgow in July 2018 on the NNHF stand, if the winner is present. Otherwise it will be arranged to take place in the winner's country.

An award agreement letter has to be signed before the grant can be transferred.